

Marissa Cho

(206)790-0569 | mykcho16@gmail.com | www.linkedin.com/in/marissa-cho-8421b9245 | Seattle, WA

Education

Washington State University Expected Graduation – May 2027 Bachelor of Science, Major: Computer Science, Minor: Math, GPA: 3.43

Skills

- Technical: C#, Java, JavaScript, Python, HTML, C++, C, R, Haskell, Linux CLI, Visual Studio, SQL
- Software: Microsoft Office, Git/GitLab, Avalonia UI, Unit Testing

Activities

Professional Development

Panhellenic Community - VP of Finance and Administration | Pullman, WA | 2026- Present

- Manages and oversees the Panhellenic Council's budget, financial records, and chapter billing processes to ensure transparency and accountability.
- Prepares and presents financial reports to the Executive Board and council, maintaining accurate and organized documentation
- Collaborates and oversees all chapter treasurers as well as senators to provide guidance on budgeting, dues, financial practices, and presenting bylaws
- Upholds administrative operations by maintaining council records, contracts, and governing documents in compliance with university and Panhellenic policies

The Boeing Company - Finance Systems and Data Analytics Intern | Renton, WA | 2026 - Present

- Supported finance systems implementation and process improvements
- Analyzed financial data to support forecasting and cost management
- Built dashboards and automated recurring reports
- Collaborated with finance and IT teams to improve reporting processes

Chi Omega Beta Beta Sorority – Treasurer | Pullman, WA | 2025 – 2026

- Oversaw all chapter financial operations, including budgeting and payment tracking.
- Managed dues collection and enforced payment deadlines to ensure chapter financial stability.
- Prepared and filed chapter tax documentation in accordance with university and IRS requirements.
- Coordinated with the executive board and members to maintain financial transparency and accountability.

Projects

- AI Program: In the process of developing an AI program that can help with students' finances such as budgeting their money out for the next 4 years.
- Battleship Game (C#): Designed and implemented game logic and mechanics as part of a class project, applying object-oriented principles.
- Campus Safety Project: Conducted research and developed awareness materials for campus-wide distribution, improving public communication skills.
- Binary Search Tree (C#): Implemented and evaluated a data structure with insert, traversal, and level analysis functions for performance comparison.

Seminars and Workshops

- Boeing Mentorship Program (2025): Selected mentee, gaining exposure to aerospace industry practices and professional development.
- Association for Computing Machinery (2025): Engaged with the world's leading computing society through technical events, research talks, and professional networking.
- Cyber Security Group (2025): Participated in hands-on workshops and discussions on threat defense, ethical hacking, and emerging security practices.
- Girls Who Code (2025): Completed coding pathways and collaborative projects aimed at closing the gender gap in technology.
- Crimson Code (2026): Participated in a 24-hour hackathon hosted by ACM, collaborating to creatively redesign and enhance an existing game.

Experience

Nordstrom – Retail Associate | Seattle, WA | May 2022 – January 2026

- Provided excellent customer service by addressing client needs and resolving issues efficiently.
- Promoted products on social media, increasing customer engagement and sales awareness.
- Strengthened leadership and communication skills through daily customer interactions.